

GEReCo Members' Research Interests

Name	Research Themes (in Geography Education)	Research Themes (beyond Geography Education)	Research methods and methodologies
Clare Brooks	Professional Compass: subject identity and professional practice. Knowing Geography education's history - review of IOE MA in GE dissertations since 1968	Developing library literacy through online learning. Learning experience on a MOOC	Case study Learner analytics
Graham Butt	Assessment Language and Learning Policy/GNC Research methods/quality	Modernisation/remodelling of teacher workforce Assessment Education policy Initial Teacher Education Social Mobility	Interviews (structured, semi structured, unstructured) Focus Groups Documentary analysis Analysis of primary and secondary data Large scale surveys
Simon Catling	Primary curriculum. Subject understanding: primary children and trainee/experienced teachers. Primary ITE courses. Primary school textbooks.	Education book publication. Images of geography in children's books. Children and/in environments. Geographies of education.	Interviews. Questionnaires. Document analysis. Case studies. Constant comparative (grounded) method.
Ian Cook	Teaching controversial issues Geographies of my stuff Creative/making pedagogies Web 2.0 detective work	Cultural activism & trade justice campaigning; Collaborative writing.	Ethnography Online research
David Lambert	Assessment Citizenship Capabilities Curriculum: development, design, making Fieldwork Progression	Textbooks and the 'resource ecology' of classrooms The place of knowledge in - Teacher education - Curriculum 'futures'	Case study Conceptual Interpretive Qualitative
John Morgan	Geography curriculum: history and theory	Knowledge and the curriculum Cultures of Digital literacy	Cultural analysis Historical Cultural political economy

	Language, Literacy and Learning in Geography	Education for Sustainability The cultural political economy of schooling
Charles Rawding	Curriculum innovation Climate change and Greenland	19 th / 20 th century rural historical geography	Archival research
Eleanor Rawling	Curriculum Development Educational Policy and Geography Concepts in Geography	Place and Identity More-than representational Literature, Landscape and Poetry Moving through landscapes – walking, running,	Qualitative Ethnographic Interpretative Documentary Analysis
Margaret Roberts	Enquiry-based learning Teaching controversial issues Powerful knowledge Powerful pedagogy Thinking geographically	EBL (enquiry based learning) and IBL (Inquiry based learning) generally including Higher Education	Document analysis: curriculum documents and textbooks
Liz Taylor	Place and Space Representations of place Progression Curriculum Concepts in geography	Identity Representation Cultural geography Children's literature	Case Study Qualitative methods Visual methods Textbook research